Essential information

Visa Requirements

All foreigners need a visa to enter Nepal. It is your responsibility to have an entry visa. You can get it from a Nepalese embassy abroad or upon arrival in Nepal. Most people receive the visa upon arrival at Kathmandu airport.

It requires a passport size photo and is subject to the following fees:

- ❖ 15 days USD 30 or equivalent convertible currency
- ❖ 30 days USD 50 or equivalent convertible currency
- ❖ 90 days USD 125 or convertible currency equivalent

CULTURAL CONSIDERATIONS

For those visiting Nepal, we have provided some cultural information to help you fit in and feel comfortable:

The dress code is essential for both genders. Both men and women should wear pants rather than shorts when sightseeing in Kathmandu. It is okay for men to wear vests, but they should not go naked.

Women should be as modest as possible in these conditions.

Hindus are concerned about ritual contamination of food if someone outside their caste or religion touches it. Therefore, do not touch cooked food in plain view and avoid touching your lips when drinking from a vessel used by others. Do not eat with the left hand and give or receive food only with the right hand. Shoes are considered demeaning, so leave them on the floor and remove them before putting your feet on anything. When entering a Nepali home, follow your host's lead in deciding whether to remove your shoes, but remove them when entering a temple or monastery.

Along the way, you will pass Buddhist mani walls, chortens, and stupas and follow local traditions; you should leave them on the right.

Travel insurance

Travel insurance for any of our company's itineraries is a condition of booking your vacation. As a minimum, you should have an emergency, medical and repatriation insurance, which should include the costs of mountain rescue, theft, loss, damage, and clinical problems. There is a wide range of policies available. Check your insurer's terms and conditions carefully, especially the vital part of the fine print. Some policies exclude "dangerous activities," including motorcycling and trekking and certainly bungee jumping and rafting).

Choose a policy covering clinical and emergency repatriation, including helicopter evacuations and general medical evacuations. You may prefer a policy that pays doctors or hospitals directly rather than having to bear on the spot and claim later. In Nepal, most clinical treatment must be paid to the place. If your insurance does not provide for payment in advance, be sure to obtain receipts to claim them later.

You must understand that evacuation and repatriation costs are ultimately your responsibility and that it is your responsibility to pay for evacuation or medical treatment. You should be aware of the consequences of taking out your travel insurance and understand the limitations and exclusions of your policy. You should be aware that, under certain circumstances, our Company Guide may initiate rescue operations by helicopter (or other means) in the event of medical emergencies without first contacting your insurance company for approval.

On our trip, we had private transportation, which was very comfortable, and the driver was well experienced, friendly, and easy-going. We got a very nice hotel in Kathmandu, Pokhara, Chitwan, and Nagarkot. Our travel schedule was prepared in the right things at the right time. It was good services thank you very much, see you on the next trip to Nepal. I highly recommend this operator without any hesitation to any travelers to Nepal.

Five days of incredible trekking with a great guide

I booked the City Tour, and I am delighted with the experience. From the first steps of the email inquiry, Kishor and his friend Narayan always answered any questions I had and quickly. The staff is more than that: they became my friends for life! I owe each of them much gratitude for contributing to these precious memories. Kul, the owner himself, came to Kathmandu airport to welcome me. We had so much fun! Narayan is always helpful and with a smile. My tour guide Jeevan was a great source of information who taught me while making each stop entertaining. If I had any questions or needed help, there was always someone there to take care of everything without hesitation. I highly recommend this company.

Well-organized private tour of Kathmandu, Pokhara, and Chitwan

Even though we traveled to Nepal during the rainy season, Mr. Kishor developed an excellent plan to enjoy Nepal within nine days. When we first landed, Kishor and his driver met us, who is very kind and friendly. During our trip, Kishor talks with us every morning and evening to make sure we get the best service. Then we flew to Pokhara, and we loved the hotel they selected for us. They have one of the best hospitality services and a peaceful atmosphere. We enjoyed our stay in Pokhara before heading to Chitwan and had our two-day Pokhara city tour with an excellent guide. He is a humorous, knowledgeable, and experienced guide who looks forward to spending more days with him. We leave Nepal with the promise of traveling again in the future.

10-Day Fun Trip to Nepal

My wife and I took a ten-day private tour of Nepal with Nepal Tour and Trekking Service P. Ltd, and our host was Mr. Kishor and Narayan. We had a wonderful time. The itinerary was excellent, a combination of visits to Kathmandu, Bandipur, Pokhara, three days of Poon Hill trekking, Bhaktapur, and Nargakot to finish.

Everything went well, and our guide was excellent. We learned a lot about Nepali culture, tradition, and way of life. He was very kind and considerate toward us.

We drove from Kathmandu to Pokhara and stopped in Bandipur along the way, which is highly recommended. However, we would also recommend flying when returning to Kathmandu, as the trip can take many hours. In conclusion, our trip was perfect, and we highly recommend this agency and team of Kishor. Many thanks to everyone involved in making the trip so much fun. I would do differently on another trip.

Well-organized company with first-class tour guides

Kishor prepared a beautiful itinerary and organized the trip to the country. The cities around Kathmandu, Pokhara, Chitwan and, Nagarkot were surrounded by natural and spiritual beauty. We had the best tour guide during our trip. His Name is Narayan. He has excellent knowledge about the culture, history, and tradition of the place we visited and knew how to explain the surroundings. Narayan made our visit to Nepal enjoyable as he guided our group through ancient temples/places. We saw beautiful sunrises and sunsets over the Himalayas. In Chitwan National Park, we had different nature guide who was intelligent and cheerful. He took us on nature walks and explained in great detail the wildlife we encountered. I was incredibly impressed with his passion for Nepal's natural wonders. Overall, the tour was excellent, and I would highly recommend to anyone to choose this company as they made our trip unforgettable.

8 Days Kathmandu-Pohkara-Chitwan-Nagarkot Trip

Very happy with the service and overall trip organized by Kishor and Narayan.

Kishor was terrific with correspondence until the last days of the trip, and on the ground, Narayan was very accommodating and flexible with our itinerary.

Kishor told us that Pohkara is the highlight of our trip. As said, we enjoyed ourselves in Pokhara with Nature. Sarangkot Sunrise visit and Paragliding are highly recommended. Narayan was an excellent guide on-site, and it would have been nice to hike, but unfortunately, we cancel hiking due to weather conditions. If we go again, we will use this agency. We highly recommend this agency and Mr. Kishor for an excellent arrangement for those thinking about the Nepal trip.

Special thanks to all the guides and drivers during our trip. We had a lovely driver who helped us take great photos.
