Day 02: Everest Mountain Flight and sightseeing to Kathmandu City

Everest experienced mountain flight is a popular tourist activity in the Nepalese Himalayas. Today early morning, you will do a one-hour mountain flight over Mt. Everest to capture the Nepalese Himalayas' best view. This flight will take you to Mt. Everest and surrounding mountains within one hour of sitting in the plane. You can see almost all the highest peaks, including Mt. Everest (8,848 m), Nuptse (7,879 M), Lhotse (8,501 M), Cho Oyu (8,000 M), Makalu (8,475 M), and Kanchenjunga (8,584 M), which are worth exploring. Then return to the hotel for breakfast and begin a guided tour of Kathmandu's most historical and spiritual attractions, such as Swoyambhunath (Monkey Temple), Boudhanath, Pashupatinath, and Kathmandu's Durbar Square.

We begin today's excursion with a visit to Swoyambhunath, a 2,500-year-old site where the radiant lotus of the valley's mythology is believed to have settled when Manjushri, the god of wisdom, drained the waters. The 5 Dhyani Buddhas, accompanied by their consorts, are enshrined at the foot of the stupa. (Non-Hindus are not allowed to enter the Swayambhunath temple), and then you will proceed to Boudhanath.

Boudhanath is the world's largest stupa and Tibetan Buddhist culture in Nepal. Around the monastery, there are antique stores where you can buy things of interest related to Buddhism.

After Boudhanath, the next place is the temple of Pashupatinath, which stands on the Bagmati River banks. It is the holiest temple for Hindus. Many people from different parts of the world visit this temple. The temple dedicated to Lord Shiva is also a Hindu cremation ground.

In the afternoon, visit the Kathmandu Durbar, Hanuman Dhoka, the old royal residential quarter, Mahadev and Parvati's temples, Machhender Bahl - a sacred place for Buddhists and Hindus, the temple house of Kumari, the Vestal Virgin, or the Living Goddess. Stroll through the local bazaars and then head to the hotel.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 03: Sightseeing tour of Patan and Bhaktapur

After breakfast, we drive you to Patan Durbar Square to explore the Mahaboudha Temple, Kumbeshwor Temple, Krishna Temple, Golden Temple, and many other places in Patan. You feel as Patan has been unveiled before like an open museum. You will see intricately carved windows, extravagant rooftop props, statues of gods and goddesses, pagoda-style temples with erotic carvings, and embossed metal facades, and many other exquisite facets. You will also see the handicraft center of Patan and continue to the ancient Durbar Square of Bhaktapur, where you will witness unique culture and the finest craftsmanship. Bhaktapur is the only place in Nepal untouched by western culture. The Lion Gate, Golden Gate, the Art Gallery, Statue of King Bhupatindra, Nyatapola Temple, and the Malla Palace with its fifty-five windows are the living pride of Bhaktapur, and you will visit all these places before heading to the hotel in Nagarkot. You will reach Nagarkot before sunset. You will enjoy the sunset view and overnight at the hotel in Nagarkot

Reviews

Pleasant trip to Kathmandu and Nagarkot

Kathmandu and Nagarkot's excellent city tour focuses on the main sights in Kathmandu and Nagarkot trekking. My guide was excellent. He was on time with the driver, and we had a perfect time at each place. He was professional, knowledgeable, and the definitive guide. As a solo traveler, he supports me by taking numerous photos and of me at the sites. The sunrise view from Nagarkot was fabulous, and the hiking was also enjoyable. He helped me with several gift purchases and always made sure I got an excellent deal. I highly recommend this Kathmandu and Nagarkot tour to everyone. Many thanks to Kishor for arranging this incredible trip for me.

More than my expectation!!! Highly recommended

I did the Kathmandu and Nagarkot city tour with Nepal Tour and Trekking Service P. Ltd. The guide, Mr. Subas, was excellent with all the information and friendly. He took me sightseeing in Kathmandu and Nagarkot. The sunset and sunrise view of Nagarkot was terrific. It was a good deal. The Buddhist stupa in Kathmandu was remarkable. I also had the opportunity to see Kumari live at Durbar Square in Kathmandu. The accommodation was lovely. The hotel service was good, and the food was delicious. Thanks for arranging this fantastic trip.

Good trip and excellent disposition

I just finished my five-day trip to Nepal and had a great time during this tour. My guide Sujan and driver Ravi were professional, knowledgeable, and fun. I had the opportunity to see Kathmandu city, temples, palaces, and beautiful sunrise and sunset from Nagarkot. I stayed in good hotels and enjoyed my trip to the fullest. Thanks to Kishor and his team for arranging the wonderful trip.

An unforgettable trip to Nepal in 5 days

My husband and I went for 4 nights 5 days tour to Kathmandu and Nagarkot. Our trip, managed by Mr. Kishor, the Nepal Tour & Trekking Service Pvt. Ltd, was brilliant. Everything from landing to departure back to Thailand was well organized and excellent. Kishor gave us the best hotels and the best vehicles. He is a very polite, helpful and respectable person. Mr. JOJO, our driver, was willing to help. I am planning a trip to Everest base camp trek with you. My highest recommendation to them!!

Great trip and excellent guide.

We did the Nagarkot sunrise and Bhaktpur Durbar square, and the Kathmandu city tour was excellent. The guide was knowledgeable about the history and scenery we saw. We were delighted to see the sunrise and beautiful Himalayan view.

I didn't have to worry about anything, as Kishor took care of everything from customization to organizing the whole experience. His guides Susil and Prabin were very knowledgeable about the local culture and the rich history of Nepal. I thoroughly enjoyed visiting the heritage sites in Kathmandu valley, sunrise in Nagarkot with fantastic mountain views.

I highly recommend Nepal Tour & Trekking Service P. Ltd to anyone looking for an unforgettable Nepal experience.
